

SCENE AT THE BURIAL AT MULL OF OA, ISLAND OF ISLAY, ON THE BLEAK WEST COAST OF SCOTLAND, OF FORTY-FOUR AMERICAN SOLDIERS WHOSE BODIES CAME ASHORE NEAR THIS POINT FOLLOWING THE SINKING OF THE AMERICAN TROOPSHIP TUSCANIA

The Mourners Are a Detachment of Men From the Tuscania, Left Behind to Attend the Services, a Firing Squad of Scotchmen, Who Volunteered to Serve in This Capacity, and Gray-haired Islayans Who Dug the Huge Grave. The "Stars and Stripes" Shown Here Was Made by Women of Port Ellen, Who Sat Up All the Night Before to Do So When no American Flag Could Be Found in the Village.

These Heroes Died for YOU

To each one of these men life was worth ten thousand times all the money you have—whether you are a millionaire or only have a job and a weekly wage.

What will you do in acknowledgment of their sacrifice?

If your boy was one of them, the gold or silver that you have, or earned each week, would jump from its hiding place to do its share in providing ships and more ships, food and more food, munitions and more munitions, to safeguard and strengthen the millions of courageous men who are fighting through Hell itself, even unto death, to protect your home against the atrocities of the Hun hordes. Can YOU do less just because your son was not one of the victims?

Wake up - EVERYBODY - RICH and POOR, and deprive yourselves. Invest in Liberty Bonds, the only thing you CAN do to show YOU are not a Coward - hiding behind the selective draft. Buy! Buy! Buy till it hurts.
